Dosh, and Discourse at Laying of Corner Stone of Gateway and Lodges But our practice is simply to bury the dead. We would not idolize the departed, nor would we cling too devotedly to their mortal remains; knowing that these vile bodies shall be changed, and shall come forth from their graves glorious and immortal bodies. But we would mark the spot where their ashes lie; and the monuments which affection may erect to their memory shall speak to the living. Centuries hence, much of the religion of the present age may be learned from the monuments which will whiten this eminence. In the early centuries of the Christian church, many of the persecuted followers of Christ at Rome, lived, died, and were buried in her hidden catacombs. Here many of the early martyrs were buried; and here the word cemetery, signifying a sleeping place, was first applied to the tomb. A visit to subterranean Rome will teach...
