(GLBA) 6 was enacted to ensure the privacy and security of personally identifiable information handled by financial institutions. Title V of GLBA requires financial institutions to provide notice to customers of a possible disclosure of non-public personal information to non-affiliates and an opportunity to opt out of such disclosure. This non-public information includes an individual's address, as well as social security number, telephone number, and mother's maiden name. The prohibition against disclosure of this information without notice and the ability to opt out are subject to statutory exceptions provided in GLBA. These exceptions allow for disclosure primarily for reasons of law enforcement, prosecution, or fraud prevention. GLBA's Privacy Rule for re-disclosure binds recipients of non-public personal financial information. The GLBA requires financial institutions to adopt and implement appropriate safeguards for the personal information of their customers. 7 -----
