Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ir Alfred John was widely known as a creator of spices, culinary of food, and a horse trader. He passionately wrote stories and memoirs about his life experiences and the adventurers of his farm in East Anglia of Eastern England. His land was a temporary stop for cattlemen and horse traders who travelled over great England s rough terrain. These Countrymen who passed through kept to rest on his land for sleep and nourishment, knowingly to mingle with other traders, and to enjoy his fine English Cook before traveling onward. His passion for life, pleasures of food creation, and concern for world spice trading is portrayed through his writings of family, great friends, and his love of farm animals. These memoirs place you on the same bench where he sat discovering the world around him. There he questioned humanity, its love, its tragedy, while still finding its humor. Sir Alfred John shows us our humanity in the early days is similar to us today, but in a real old world setting. His stories are of old age dreams, courage, comfort, innovations, animal magnetism, harmony, affliction, tragedies, friendships, morals, and much more. Come see how our current world is not much different then in past tyme. Sit in his bench and discover your worlds adventures in life and see what it truly around you. Soft Cover, 5.5 x 8.5, Black White.
