I had retired Unto my chamber, there to rest, to sleep Mayhap, but not to dream, - or was t a dream? Nay, hardly such, for in my mortal state I surely passed that rough and rugged way Unguided, still by spirit seeming driven, I came upon a high and rocky ledge That overhung a high, still-moving stream, With shadow-mist o erspread. There to the north where seemed the end of some Dark valley, two great mountains formed a wall That marked the bound ry of that awesome place. Long flaming rays of purple-crimson shone In fan-like streams of deeply shaded light From up behind those gloomy mountain peaks, Far o er the sluggish tide. The quiet waters laved a shadowy shore, Low murmuring in mournful monotone; And in the murkiness of that dense shade, Electric tension gripped my inmost soul As in a vise of steel. Close riveted It held me fast upon...

Reviews

The very best pdf i possibly study. It generally will not expense excessive. You wont really feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogs are for concerning should you ask me).

-- Prof. Owen Sporer

Undoubtedly, this is the best work by any author. It is really simplified but shocks within the 50 % in the publication. Its been written in an extremely straightforward way and is particularly just following i finished reading this publication by which basically altered me, modify the way in my opinion.
